

NATURE OUTSIDE YOUR DOOR

Kinglet
BY BIG LAKE

Big Lake

Big Lake, the largest lake near Edmonton is protected as part of the Lois Hole Centennial Provincial Park. The lake is home to over 200 different bird species, including the beloved Kinglet. You can kayak on the lake, fish along the shore and up the river, or hop on the Red Willow Trail System for an invigorating hike or bike ride.

Environmental Reserve

Preserving nature is just as important as appreciating it. Kinglet backs onto 60 acres of protected Environmental Reserve, where native wetlands and wild grasses support local wildlife and echo the natural beauty of Big Lake—preserving nature while connecting the community to it.

Lois Hole Provincial Park

Connect deeply with nature and spend afternoons exploring the 1,800 hectares of Lois Hole Centennial Provincial Park, just beyond the Trumpeter community. Walk along the boardwalk, try to spot some of the 235 diverse bird species in the area and head up to the wildlife viewing decks to spot beavers, deer, moose and more.

NEARBY AMENITIES

Living in Kinglet, you'll only be minutes away from all of life's needs and wants, and only seconds away from the fresh air, peace and calm that comes with living amongst the wonders of nature.
